

Statement of Good Will from the Businesses of the Church Street Marketplace District

(Approved by the Church Street Marketplace District Commission, January, 2004)

- We recognize that what makes Burlington unique and special is a forward-thinking environment that fosters a healthy community dialogue and acceptance of all people .
- We, the businesses of the Church Street Marketplace District, believe that our community's growing diversity makes us stronger, smarter and enhances our economic vitality.
- We believe that as business owners, a sound business practice is to be informed and aware of the differences of our diverse community and to practice positive human relations with every person.
- We are opposed to any discrimination or profiling based on race, creed, ethnicity, sexual orientation, age or disability. Discrimination and profiling hurts all members of the community.
- We are committed to providing equal service to our customers, regardless of race, creed, ethnicity, sexual orientation, age or disability.
